Subject: IMPERILING BOOKSTORES

My dear Mr. Read:

A healthy, competitive book market is vital to our culture. It's not in the public interest for the government to help Amazon use e-books to target traditional brick-and-mortar bookstores. Your proposed e-book settlement is not only unfair, it will destroy bookstores, and with them the right of Americans to free enterprise and the lovely feeling of walking into a store dedicated to displaying and selling books.

I ask that you reverse this decision and LET BOOKSTORES LIVE.

Sincerely,

Mildred Barger Herschler
