

From: Tina Erwin [mailto:tinaerw[REDACTED]]
Sent: Saturday, June 23, 2012 11:40 AM
To: Read, John [John.Read@ATR.USDOJ.gov]
Subject:

Dear Mr. Read,
Competition is the heart and soul of commerce. Large corporations who practice predatory practices seek to crush the competition. We have no competition in the cable industry as an example. The consumer is always the final victim. Please don't allow AMazon to crush these middle class, brick and mortar business men and women. Competition keeps an economy and a country healthy.

Thank you.

Sincerely, Tina Erwin

Tina Erwin CDR USN [Ret]

<http://tinaerwin.com/> Author of:

The Lightworker's Guide to Healing Grief (2009)

The Lightworker's Guide to Everyday Karma (2011)

Ghost Stories from the Ghosts' Point of View Book One (2012)