Subject: United States v. Apple, Inc et al, 12-cv-2826(DLC) (SDNY) Comments on Proposed Final Judgement as to Defendants Hachette, Harper Collins and Simon&Shuster

Dear Sir,

It is appalling to see that the Justice Department would EVER sanction a very destructive and an anticompetitive campaign of a corporate giant –AMAZON—with countless billions to end up “forcing” the brick and mortar bookstore to eventually close---How can anyone ever compete with this notion of an ability to continually UNDERCUT prices....on books?

Have you yourself ever walked into a bookstore or library? Would you want such an institution to close? Believe it or not there are still millions of people without internet access.

I NEVER as a consumer want to be FORCED to buy from one source. AMAZON must not be the monopoly.

Please consider me a vote against AMAZON!

Thank you,
