Our country will only be healthy when we allow for diversity within the agricultural market. What's more, farmers deserve our respect, not to be manipulated and exploited by a super-corporation. Please stop the exploitative monopoly of Monsanto, alert us to what we're truly eating (ie GMOs), choose unbiased individuals to hold Monsanto and the like accountable, and support farmers in more ways than forcing them into debt and monoculturism that inevitably destroys our health and land.

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to comment.

Sincerely,

Bianca Basch
